You are buying Exempt Market Securities

They are called exempt market securities because two parts of securities law do not apply to them. If an issuer wants to sell exempt market securities to you:

- the issuer does not have to give you a prospectus (a document that describes the investment in detail and gives you some legal protections), and
- the securities do not have to be sold by an investment dealer registered with a securities commission.

There are restrictions on your ability to resell exempt market securities. Exempt market securities are more risky than other securities.

You will receive an offering memorandum

Read the offering memorandum carefully because it has important information about the issuer and its securities. Keep the offering memorandum because you have rights based on it. Talk to a lawyer for details about these rights.

You will not receive advice

You will not get professional advice about whether the investment is suitable for you. But you can still seek that advice from an adviser or investment dealer registered with a securities commission.

These securities you are buying are not listed

These securities you are buying are not listed on any stock exchange, and they may never be listed. You may never be able to sell these securities.

The Issuer of your securities is a non-reporting issuer

A non-reporting issuer does not have to publish financial information or notify the public of changes in its business. You will not receive ongoing information about the issuer.

7. Use of Personal Information

The Subscriber (on its own behalf and, if applicable, on behalf of any person for whose benefit the Subscriber is subscribing) acknowledges and consents to the fact the Fund and the Investment Manager are collecting the Subscriber's (and any beneficial purchaser's) personal information for the purpose of completing the Subscriber's subscription. Effective at the date of acceptance of this Subscription, the Fund hereby grants the applicable statutory or contractual right of action for rescission or damages to the Subscriber for the applicable province of residence of the Subscriber, as set forth in the Offering Memorandum as if such rights were fully set forth in this subscription and such rights are incorporated by reference into this subscription.

11. Defined Terms

Capitalized terms herein shall, unless otherwise defined herein, have the meanings ascribed to them in the Offering Memorandum.
